Complex Sentences - Embedding

Good long sentences are often made by sticking, or embedding, parts into other sentences.
Directions – Match and embed the adjectives, clauses, and phrases.

Group One

Existing sentences	Clauses and phrases
The book fell.	with the red collar
The marble is out of reach.	that she was reading
The dog kept barking.	under the couch.

Group Two

Existing sentences	Adjectives
The giraffe was eating leaves.	scared
The storm did a lot of damage.	black and white
The cat ran away.	dangerous
I haven't seen a tv show in a while.	tall

Group Three

Existing sentences	Clauses, Phrases, and Adjectives
The pyramids were important to the Egyptians.	with a large, bushy tail
A squirrel just ran under the car.	into the boat
The fisherman wasn't mad after the fish fell.	ancient
Because it was so cold, my mom suggested that I wear my coat.	where he had last seen the blueprints to the new skyscraper
The architect tried to remember the place.	big, thick coat