

Complex Sentences – Sentence Combining

Directions: Combine parts from column one and column two to create sentences. Use the clues if necessary.

Column One	Column Two	Clues
1) The boy sat down.	1) The boy ate supper.	1) Use the word and . Use boy only once.
2) He ate his hamburger.	2) He ate his french fries.	2) Use the word and . Use he only once.
3) He did not get dessert.	3) He did not eat all of his peas.	3) Use the word because .
4) The child put on her shoes.	4) She put on her socks.	4) Use the word after .
5) The bus requires an amount of change.	5) The amount of change must be exact.	5) Use the word exact in the middle of the first sentence.
6) The cheetah had no trouble catching its prey.	6) The cheetah was healthy and hungry.	6) Use “ healthy, hungry ” within the first sentence.
7) A laboratory is a place.	7) Scientists do research at laboratories.	7) Use the word where and combine.
8) Architecture is a profession.	8) Architecture requires going to college.	8) Use the word that and combine.
9) The Earth rotates around the sun.	9) The Earth revolves on its axis.	9) Use the word while and combine.
10) The illustration shows how the pieces fit together.	10) of the finished model	10) Put the phrase into the sentence.