

Adjectives

Sentence Bulls Eye

Directions: Draw two lines from each beginning through two middle sections and two endings. Form 16 complete sentences.

The diagram is a circular 'Bulls Eye' with four concentric rings and six radial lines. The outer ring contains sentence beginnings, the middle ring contains adjectives, and the inner ring contains sentence endings. The center contains 16 complete sentences. The diagram is decorated with green triangles pointing outwards.

Beginning	Adjective	Ending	Complete Sentence
I have a	delicious	dog.	I have a delicious dog.
	tall	giraffe was quiet.	A tall giraffe was quiet.
	long	snake hissed.	A long snake hissed.
The chef made a	flat	pancake.	The chef made a flat pancake.
	sharp	claws.	The bird has sharp claws.
	light	feathers.	The bird has light feathers.
	round	wheels.	Trains use round wheels.
	straight	tracks.	Trains use straight tracks.
I felt the	sour	glass of lemonade.	I felt the sour glass of lemonade.
	rough	glass.	I felt the rough glass.
	smooth	sandpaper.	I felt the smooth sandpaper.
	loud	explosion.	I felt the loud explosion.
	quiet	cat.	I felt the quiet cat.
	nervous	nail.	He was scratched by a nervous nail.
	rusty	rusty.	He was scratched by a rusty rusty.
The movie ended with a	quiet	explosion.	The movie ended with a quiet explosion.
	nervous	cat.	The movie ended with a nervous cat.
	rusty	rusty.	The movie ended with a rusty rusty.