Possessive Pronouns

Directions: Draw two lines from each beginning through two possessive pronouns and two endings.

The Vice President read his autobiography proudly.

You should always pay attention to manners.

The Earth rotates on its axis.

Lyndon threw his own hat into the ring.

My letter to him.

The opinion is ours, because we share it.

Their decision to buy a new car.

Signature.

The council members discussed his beliefs.

Their job.

Wings.

The ostrich tried unsuccessfully to use its computer.

Our drawing of the Earth.

Tail when you see a rattlesnake.

Because only she believes it.

Her purse away accidentally.

Because we share it.

Their writing.