Category Directions

Categories are great for improving how well you describe things. The more categories you know, the better your speech and writing will be.

Directions: Follow each direction.

Underline all the words that are months.

Put a box around all the words that are types of buildings.

Circle all the words that are types of beverage.

Cross out all the words that are kinds of punctuation.

March skyscraper comma

milk school September

October question mark igloo

orange juice hot chocolate period