

Choose the correct one

Relation Prepositions

The following words are little words that are used a lot to show how things go together:

with, for, from, to, by, as, about, of

Directions – Circle the correct sentence in each row.

I want a piece of pizza.

I want a piece pizza.

She gave the present me.

She gave the present to me.

The story is some bears.

The story is about some bears.

We went a my parents.

We went with my parents.

I thought about the party.

I thought with the party.

He drew a picture from me.

He drew a picture for me.

I walked home at school.

I walked home from school.

The story by Mark Twain is good.

The story Mark Twain is good.