

Choose the correct one

Relation Prepositions

The following words are little words that are used a lot to show how things go together:

with, for, from, to, by, without, as, except, about, of

Directions – Circle the correct sentence in each row.

---

He wrote with a pencil.

He wrote by a pencil.

---

The present is my grandmother.

The present is for my grandmother.

---

The teacher looked at my paper.

The teacher looked my paper.

---

He dressed up by a ghost.

He dressed up as a ghost.

---

The injured player walked with a limp.

The injured player walked of a limp.

---

I like all fruit and peaches.

I like all fruit except peaches.

---

She got a new dog from the dog pound.

She got a new dog the dog pound.

---

You can't have rain without clouds.

You can't have rain with clouds.

---

Can you do a favor from me?

Can you do a favor for me?