Directions: Draw a line connecting each beginning to two middles and two endings.

- The jellyfish stung my toe,
- I got out of bed.
- I continued to swim.
- I jumped out of the water.
- Sponges can be used to absorb anything wet,
- they can only temporarily store liquids.
- and
- they can be used to decorate aquariums.
- Mr. Watson solved the crime,
- so
- Mr. Holmes received the glory.
- the criminal went to jail.
- the first known photograph was taken in 1826,
- which
- the profession of photography was born.
- was very fuzzy.
- and
- the driver stopped to let someone on.
- the triplets had to wait for the next bus.
- they're healthy for the entire body.
- but
- they can breathe underwater.
- a person can't live on carrots alone.
- I'll ride it again.
- did it make me dizzy.
- nor
- I'll ride it again.
- so
- The roller coaster ride did not make me sick to my stomach,
- Carrots are good for vision,
- they're healthy for the entire body.
- a person can't live on carrots alone.
- I'll ride it again.
- did it make me dizzy.
- nor
- I'll ride it again.
- so
- The roller coaster ride did not make me sick to my stomach,
- Carrots are good for vision,
- the triplets had to wait for the next bus.
- they're healthy for the entire body.
- a person can't live on carrots alone.
- I'll ride it again.
- did it make me dizzy.
- nor
- I'll ride it again.
- so
- The roller coaster ride did not make me sick to my stomach,