

Complex Sentences - Embedding

Good long sentences are often made by sticking, or embedding, parts into other sentences.

Directions – Match and embed the adjectives, clauses, and phrases.

Group One

Existing sentences

The book fell.

The marble is out of reach.

The dog kept barking.

Clauses and phrases

with the red collar

that she was reading

under the couch.

Group Two

Existing sentences

The giraffe was eating leaves.

The storm did a lot of damage.

The cat ran away.

I haven't seen a tv show in a while.

Adjectives

scared

black and white

dangerous

tall

Group Three

Existing sentences

The pyramids were important to the Egyptians.

A squirrel just ran under the car.

The fisherman wasn't mad after the fish fell.

Because it was so cold, my mom suggested that I wear my coat.

The architect tried to remember the place.

Clauses, Phrases, and Adjectives

with a large, bushy tail

into the boat ancient

where he had last seen the blueprints to the new skyscraper

big, thick coat