

Functions - Functions are used to describe words. They tell what words do.

Directions – Name the word that has each function. Afterward, go back and tell what each word does.

1) This lists words alphabetically at the back of a book, to help find those words in the book. _____

2) This event occurs periodically for people to choose new leaders. _____

3) This type of word can replace a noun. _____

4) This protects the Earth from things like dangerous radiation and meteors. _____

5) This type of punctuation is used to mark what people say. _____

6) This is money collected by government to pay for needed services like schools and police. _____

7) This group of people decides guilt or innocence in a court of law. _____

8) This process wears away dirt and rock over time. _____

9) This word describes 100 years. _____

10) The completion of this causes electricity to flow. _____