

Functions - Functions are used to describe words. They tell what words do.

Directions – Name the word that has each function. Afterward, go back and tell what each word does.

1) This is something that goes at the beginning of a book. It tells about the chapters. _____

2) This can go in the middle of a sentence to help make the sentence easier to read. _____

3) This is used to describe how hot or cold it is. _____

4) This is any symbol used in or at the end of a sentence or question to help make it easier to read. _____

5) This is what you think about something. It might not be right. _____

6) This tells where a story takes place. _____

7) This tells how heavy something is. _____

8) This tells a place, or where something is. _____

9) This tells what a paragraph or story is all about. _____

10) These are used to talk about things that might happen. _____