

Reflexive pronoun practice – Fill in the blanks

Guided
Practice
Ideas
Continued

Use these reflexive pronouns to fill in each blank: myself, yourself, himself, herself, themselves, itself

He dressed _____ for the first time.

The girl walked _____ home from school.

I helped _____ to the last piece of cake.

The kids saw _____ in the mirror.

You can see for _____ that the game is over.

The computer shut _____ down.

* * * * *

Indefinite pronoun practice – Fill in the blanks

Use these indefinite pronouns to fill in each blank: all, another, any, anybody, both, each, either, few, many, everything, anyone, nothing

The man lifted the heavy box with _____ hands.

The guard wasn't allowed to let _____ into the room.

_____ of the cars avoided the large pothole.

There are _____ people who know _____ languages.

He was relieved to see that there was _____ in the hole.

My friend's mother asked if I wanted _____ dessert.

My friend asked for _____ piece of pie.

The alphabet requires _____ letter to be complete.

Every number is _____ odd or even.

You can't have _____, but at least you have more than _____.