

“Say More!”, an embedding activity:

Directions: Squeeze the following sentence parts into already existing sentences to make them “say more.”

Example #1 sentence parts: with the beautiful hat, that had hopped all the way from the swing, next to the piece of paper, after finding the critical clue

Sentences:

- The girl was riding a bike.
- The pencil rolled on my desk.
- There was a frog on the slide.
- The detective determined the identity of the burglar.

Example #2 sentence parts: instead of a period, when the boy was surprised, that the Governor should be impeached, between the words “if” and “you”

Sentences:

- I don’t agree with the politician’s opinion.
- Our teacher told us to write an exclamation point at the end of the sentence.
- The comma should be removed.

Role playing: Such as, ordering a meal at a fast food restaurant with extras and/or without some condiments.

Example statements: “I would like a hamburger with extra ketchup and no mustard.” “I would like a drink with no ice.”

Explain the rules of a game, using conjunctions or relative pronouns. Write down the words ahead of time, and cross off as used.

Example statements: “Decide who goes first before you start.” “You can pick up the card that the other person laid down.”
